

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE ONLINE TESTING

What Next?

Do you need to take a decision about what to study next?

Do you feel that you're not cut out for what you're doing now?

Are you dissatisfied with what you're doing now and wonder if you can do something else?

- IPH has new online tools to help you find answers for all your career related questions.
- Now you can respond to these globally standardized tests from a location of your convenience.
- Our experts will give you recommendations based on your test results.
- An option of face to face discussion of the test results would be also available.

You'll find several internet sites offering such tests.

What's Different about us?

We offer tests chosen by experts and interpretation of the test results by the same experts.

These unique and customised inputs are what most places will not offer you!
